

Career Development & Fulfillment

One of the biggest obstacles to job satisfaction in the workforce today is finding a job that fits your personality. A good match between your personality and a career opportunity is one of the most important factors in job satisfaction, performance, absenteeism and turnover.

Discover What Makes You Tick and Find Career Satisfaction!

This Career Development & Fulfillment Workshop Will Help You:

-  Discover what motivates you
-  Explore different personality traits and work styles
-  Develop a career – no more dead end jobs
-  Position yourself for future career growth
-  Learn about yourself so that you can enjoy everyday, not just the weekends!

In a newly released survey about Job Satisfaction and Engagement across the American workforce, only 45 percent of workers say they are satisfied with their jobs. At the same time, only 20 percent feel very passionate or inspired by their jobs.

Talent Train can help. For only $39, our professional and trained instructors will help you identify your unique personality traits so you can better understand yourself and what you need in your career.

Quit Dreading The Workweek And Living For The Weekends! Sign up Today!

Ask a Career Talent Agent how to sign up for a this workshop today.

Major credit cards accepted

